

The 10th French Detachment
presents:

Main Street in Selma ...

*After dancing some french boys go out of the U.S.O
One of them is arm in arm with an American girl Of course, he is the most talkative of all the boys, first because he has to amuse the girl he met, second because he can speak english. So, he tells her how he escaped from nazi-occupied FRANCE and he relates to her the story of his journey accross SPAIN to Free North - Africa .*

So they go backward among the boy's "souvenirs" come with them, let us dream....

Bull Fighting

*But a dancing-party has to be cheerful and,
among his "Souvenirs"
of Spain the boy chooses the best. Spain?*

*It is not, for this evening, the prison
in which he stayed
for seven months;*

it will be one of these gorgeous" bull-fights" - the Spanish say "Corrida de Toros" - with a lot of colours, splendid golden dresses, horses with many-coloured caparison, girls, with lace-mantillas

*A gorgeous show but too, an exciting sport.....
...and from time to time
a sunny thing
" Toreador "
be careful*

Visite médicale

*The boy landed in North Africa. So for him it was freedom of starting again to prepare himself for combat. He chose to be a pilot and to get his training in the States.
But before, he had to undergo a medical examination. What kind? You don't know!
Well, look !!*

*Let us go on and let us follow the french boy and the american girl
in their
"Souvenir party"*

THINK OF THEM...

Four years ago two millions of our young men entered German concentration camps where they are still starving and waiting for "FREEDOM".

The lottery which takes place during the intermission is organized for the benefit of our soldiers to send them packages through the International Red Cross.

THINK OF WAR PRISONERS. . . .
HELP ! ! . . . KEEP 'EM LIVING

Paris!!

It has often been said that Americans are more materialist than French We may not think so now, as we see a charming girl more and more enthusiastic about travels into the Past . So that she proposes now to the French boy to undertake a new journey in the future The boy is rather afraid but the girl is very impatient and they start for their new journey which will lead them to PARIS, MONTMARTRE The wharfs along the "SEINE", the Paris cheerful and glistening with a thousand lights, the quiet Paris and, at last the Paris of the bad boys ..

Paradise

More and more enthusiastic the girl wants to leave the earth now, to travel in the sky among clouds, stars and suns. So the boy seizes time by the forelock : he will visit a french soldier who had been fighting in the allied forces.

Let us take off from the earth !

Heading to Paradise !

And, if the american girl and the French boy stay in Paradise don't be astonished !

*It was only a
dream !!*

Let us Dream.
