THE PILOT WHO FOUND GOD

Oh! I have slipped the surly bonds of Earth, And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;

Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds-and done a hundred things

You have not dreamed of-wheeled and soared and swung High in the sunlit silence, Hovering there,

I've chased the shouting wind along,
and flung

My eager craft through footless halls of air-

Up, up the delirious, burning blue I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace,

Where never lark, or even eagle flew,
And while, with silent lifting mind I've trod

The high untrespassed sanctity of space, Put out my hand and touched the face of God.
